

CLUB AND DISTRICT HAPPENINGS

The Rotary Club of Salida distributed almost 300 dictionaries to Salida Area schools. The third grade students (and their teachers) were each presented a beautiful hard-back illustrated dictionary with their name in it. When they heard it was theirs to keep, the smiles on their faces were brilliant! NEW! DISTRICT BUSINESS DIRECTORY

~by Dave Hosmer—“Vocational Service” is a description of the opportunity each Rotarian has to represent the dignity and utility of one’s vocation to other members of Rotary and his or her community.

We all want to support each other when there are products or services for our businesses or families that can be provided other Rotarians. Indeed that was one of the original motivations in forming Rotary. But besides word of mouth or Rotarians personally known to us, there really isn’t a practical and convenient and efficient method to do this.

That is why the District 5220 ceived. Frustrated by searches businesses, Rotarians Brian Bizzini developer Roger Tristan, are col-source. District Rotarians wish-access the directory from the vice, and get a listing of district searches should also be possible.

Business Directory was con- for Rotarian owned and operated busi- and Dave Hosmer, along with website laborating to create this valuable re- ing to participate will soon be able to website, search for a product or ser- members who provide it. Other

We are looking for interested district members willing to be involved in this product development and are willing to give us feedback on creating the final useful version. The information in the directory will be maintained by the Rotarians themselves by filling in a form to record information about each Rotarian’s business or vocation, and there is no cost involved.

If you are one of those interested members convinced that this can be a valuable resource, then e-mail Brian at brianb@ABS-presort.com and he can give you the link to get the process started.
