

“SPONSOR RECOGNITION DAYS” EXPLANATION

Quarterly: Rotary Fiscal Calendar
(Membership Development Committee)

During the 1996-1997 Rotary Year the idea was posed to recognize the sponsors of new members with a quarterly “Sponsor Recognition Day.”

Upon sponsoring a new member into the club, the member is presented with a Sponsor Pin the day their COG is inducted. In turn, one Tuesday immediately following the conclusion of a Rotary fiscal calendar quarter, a special table is set-up toward the front of the room for the sponsors at the weekly meeting. They are guests of the club for lunch and receive the “perks” of champagne and cake. The sponsors are then recognized by the Club President during the meeting to encourage other members to sponsor a new member. Since the inception of this idea there are several individuals who have had more than one lunch “on the club.” So far, two such days have been celebrated during 1997-1998--July 8 and October 14, 1997.
